Public Speaking and Debate

Set in a beautiful location by the sea, this programme at OIC Brighton aims to help young learners challenge themselves and boost their oracy skills through public speaking and debate workshops.

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

- Students eager to elevate public speaking and debating skills in a dynamic, international environment
- Young learners ready to build confidence and clarity when speaking in front of others
- Those who enjoy team discussions, friendly competitions, and creative expression through words and ideas
- Students seeking an oracy-focused summer experience that balances skill-building workshops with fun cultural activities
- Learners who want to strengthen critical thinking, listening, and collaboration through engaging communication challenges

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Build confidence and clarity when speaking in front of an audience through daily public speaking and debate workshops
- Develop structured thinking and persuasive communication by learning how to organise ideas and express opinions effectively
- Strengthen listening, teamwork, and leadership skills through group discussions, debates, and collaborative challenges
- Enhance creativity, presence, and delivery using body language, voice control, and performance techniques

Why Oxford International College?

Oxford International College Brighton offers a vibrant, inspiring environment where students can learn, collaborate, and grow in confidence. The campus provides a safe, fully residential setting with modern classrooms, comfortable accommodation, and excellent facilities, all in one place.

Located just outside the seaside city of Brighton, students benefit from the energy of a lively, creative community known for its diversity and open-mindedness. The college's supportive atmosphere and international outlook make it an ideal location for young learners developing communication, teamwork, and leadership skills through public speaking and debate.

Benefits of the Public Speaking & Debate Programme

This immersive oracy course helps students find their voice and use it with confidence. Through daily workshops in public speaking and debate, learners strengthen their ability to think critically, argue persuasively, and speak clearly in front of an audience.

Practical sessions focus on delivery, structure, and teamwork, while creative challenges encourage flexibility and confidence under pressure. The balance between interactive learning, social activities, and cultural excursions ensures a rewarding and inspiring summer experience that builds both communication skills and personal growth.
